

Aisha Yousuf Al-Mohannadi

P.O. Box:80746, Doha, Qatar
(+974) 3000-2121
Aisha. Almohannadi@qnb.com

EDUCATION

Arbitration course, January – March 2016

Qatar University College of Law, LL.B, Fall 2013

Honors: Dean's List, Spring 2011

Activities: College of Law Student Trip to Qatar's Criminal Court, April 28, 2011
College of Law Student Trip to Qatar's Penal and Correctional Institution, December 23, 2011, Organized the open day, Mar 2012 and was a part of the campus day Mar 31 2012, Member of the student club of law 2012-2013,
Organized the day of consolidation with Syrian people and the expiation to collect money to support them.

Al-Wakrah Independent School for Girls, High School Diploma, June 2009

Honors: Perfect attendance certificate
Graduated with a 85% average
Volunteer at Al-Wakrah hospital center

EXPERIENCE

Allen & Ovary Middle East Academy Doha

Participant, March 13 & 14 2016

Arbitration course

Participant, 24 January – 23 March 2016

Qatar National Bank

Legal Admin Officer , August 2014 - present

Participant at the first round of Qatar university debate competition

Participant

Trained to be a debater by Doha debate and Qatar university

Participant

Attend EMPOWER conference 2012-2013

Participant

Organizing with Qatar Financial Centre “Qatar law firm”

Participant

Volunteering at the Public prosecution,

Participant, Jun 22-26 2012

First Regional Conference on International Criminal Courts, hosted by the public prosecution Doha, Qatar.

Participant, May 25-26, 2011

Attended and participated in a two day conference organized by Public Prosecution, State of Qatar and the International Criminal Court. Participated in courses and panels focusing on criminal topics, including the criminal court’s jurisdictional issues regarding new legislation and crimes of aggression, the role of the UNSC states and prosecutors, and the role of victims within the ICC.

English for Lawyers Program, hosted by the University of Pittsburgh School of Law, Doha, Qatar

Participant, February 20-24, 2011

Attended and participated in a program which was organized by the College of Law in collaboration with a professional legal writing team from the University Of Pittsburgh School Of Law. Participated in many activities such as the identification of legal terminology which helps in understanding complicated issues in different areas of law.

Participant: Model United Nations (MUN), hosted by Georgetown University, Doha, Qatar

Student Participant, January 29 – February 1st 2009

Attended and participated in a program for high school students which was organized by Model United Nations and Georgetown University. Participated as the only Qatari female student on the African Union panel. While assigned to represent Ghana, discussed two major world problems of that time: Somalian pirates and civil war in Mozambique. Discussed the two problems as groups and wrote and delivered formal solutions to Georgetown and MUN representatives. Was on the team whose solution was chosen as first place overall.

LANGUAGES

Native Arabic speaker. Fluent in English

Courses and Skills:

- English course (2008)

- computer course at Qatar University (2009)
- Microsoft word, PowerPoint and Excel.
- (5.5) ILETS score.

ADDITIONAL

- Interested in reading, creative writing, travelling, and meeting new people. I have a passion for seminars, conferences and activities relating to women's and worlds issues. I am a fast learner. Below is a list of the courses and skills I have done: