I am a highly motivated and organized individual who possesses an enthusiastic approach to work and interested in gaining experience in the field of Law. This requires dedication, hard work and being open to challenges, qualities that I have always strived to maintain. I am composed under pressure and work effectively within a team to ensure compliance with strict deadlines while keeping in mind the necessity of being reliable, flexible and committed .The most rewarding work experience in my life was working at the Legal Department of Central Bank of Bahrain which gained me the ability to meet demanding performance targets, a trait very useful in the legal profession. I possess a true desire and will to learn and gain more knowledge through exploration and research into the theories behind the law and aim to have a rewarding career. I am efficient in prioritizing events and follow an analytical approach towards solving problems while working towards achieving the highest standards of quality with every new challenge using a methodical and disciplined approach.
