

Dr. Mohammed Ibrahim AL-Eisa

---

Riyadh, AL-Muruj District, Al-Hayat Center, Second Floor (17) | P.O. Box 75879, Riyadh 11588 |
Office: +966.112006131 | Fax: +966.112006232 | Mobile: +966.558684040 |

Qualifications

- PhD. In law, Thesis about International Commercial Arbitration, and Enforcement of arbitral award in Saudi Arabia. University of Essex, the UK.
- LLM. in International Trade Law, University of Essex, the UK.
- LL.B. in Law, King Saud University, Riyadh

Work Experience

- Dr. Mohammed AL-Eisa Law Firm; Co-Founder & Managing Partner, from 2014 until present.
- Dr. Ibrahim AL-Eissa Law Firm; worked as Legal Adviser from 2000 till 2014.
- The General Organisation for Social Insurance (GOSI); worked as Pensions Director at GOSI Head Office, also as Secretary-General of the GOSI's Board; from 2003 till 2014.
- Maintenance Forces Command of the Ministry of Defence; worked as a Legal adviser, from 2001 till 2003.
- Ministry of Labour and Social Affairs; worked as a Labour Complaints Investigator, from 2000 till 2001.

Contributions and Participations

- Member of Saudi Bar Association, Certified Lawyer and Arbitrator by the Saudi Ministry of Justice.
- Member of G.C.C Commercial Arbitration Center (GCCCCAC); and under registration in Saudi Center for Commercial Arbitration (SCCA).
- Member of Appeals Committee of Saudi Arabian Football Federation (SAFF).
- Board Member of the Saudi Research and Marketing Group (SRMG).
- Member of the Audit Committee of (SRMG).
- Secretary-General of the GOSI's Board.
- Member of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee of (SRMG).
- Member of Scholarship and Training Committee of (GOSI).
- Participating in many committees to develop electronic systems in (GOSI).

Contributions to Arbitration

Publications

- The title of PhD. The thesis is "A Critical Analysis of the Legal Problems associated with Recognition and Enforcement of Arbitral Awards in Saudi Arabia: Will the New Saudi Arbitration Law (2012) Resolve the Main Legal Problems?".
- The title of LL.M. dissertation is "The Developments of Commercial Arbitration in Saudi Law: A Descriptive and Analytical Study in the light of Islamic Sharia law and International practice. Is there any possibility of adopting online arbitration?" Submitted to the University of Essex in partial fulfilment of the requirements for the degree LL.M in International Trade Law.
- In the module of International Commercial Dispute Resolution, two essays were submitted. The first is entitled "What is/are the test(s) applied by English courts for the disqualification of arbitrators for lack of impartiality and independence? Compare with other legal systems and assess whether these are in harmony with the IBA rule on conflict of interest." The second essay is about drafting a legal brief on behalf of the Respondent in Arbitration case.

- AL-Eisa, Mohammed. "Saudi Jurisprudence in Appointing a Woman as Arbitrator", Global Arbitration Journal, issue 33 (2016). Arabic version.
- AL-Eisa, Mohammed. "the New Saudi Arbitration Law, the Potential Legal Problems" Al-Eqtisadiyah Newspaper, (4 Dec 2014).
- AL-Eisa, Mohammed. "Enforcement of Arbitral Awards in Saudi Arabia" Al-Eqtisadiyah Newspaper, (11 Dec 2014).
- Attending the event of (BIICL) in London titled: "Why Still ICSID? Summary Procedures, Annulment Proceedings and the Future of ICSID Arbitration"; 2011.

Practically

During my work experience in Dr. Ibrahim Al-Eissa Law Firm, I had participated in legal studies in the following arbitration cases:

- The case of "Abdul Raouf Batterjee and his co-operative brothers vs. Johnson & Johnson Ltd." the value of the dispute is about (SR 45,000,000).
- The case of "Abdullah Al Babbain Foundation vs. the Middle East Software AG", the value of the dispute is about (SR 30,000,000).
- The case of "Al-Karwan Co. Ltd. Vs. King Faisal Foundation" the value of the dispute is about (SR 2,292,857).
- The case of "Rabee Bin Mana Al Rabeeh vs. Saleh Al Rajhi Trading Est. and Al Rashid House Contracting Est." the value of the dispute is about (SR 4,318,598).

Languages

- Arabic
- English

